REPORT.

IN the first Report of the new century, and the 107th year of the Institution's usefulness—a period exceeding the long life and reign of our late Queen—the Committee desire to acknowledge and record the interest Her Majesty took in the form of affliction dealt with in this Asylum, the inmates of which were conspicuous in the loyalty and devotion manifested on the occasion of her last visit to Bristol.

The number of Pupils in the Asylum during 1900 differs little from that of the preceding year, three only having been admitted and six left.

The Education Act, which has now been in force for some years, creates two distinct classes of Pupils which have to be separately considered—those under 16 and those above that age.

Of the former there were in the Asylum at the end of the year 46, and of the latter 21, consisting of 43 males, 24 females—total 67.

Her Majesty's Inspector's Report of those under 16 years bears testimony to the efficiency of the Teaching Staff.

"The Teachers," he says, "are all working industriously, and steady progress is being made."

It has been found desirable to provide an Assistant Teacher for Mr. G. H. Raison, Head Teacher in the Boys' School. Mr. R. Cook, of Birmingham, who was well recommended, has been appointed, and the Committee have every reason to be pleased with this arrangement.

The Inspector's Report on those over 16 is as follows :—

"The Boys' School continues to be very carefully taught."

"The Girls' School.—The Girls behave well, and are pleasantly and carefully taught."

Of the six Pupils who left—two girls, four boys—the former, after serving seven years, were removed by their friends, who were in a position to support them ; besides the usual School subjects, one had some knowledge of music.

Of the four boys who left, one, the organist of the Asylum Chapel, secured a Musical Scholarship valued at £40, tenable at the Royal Normal College for the Blind, at Upper Norwood, a Pupil in the School being ready to take his place at the organ ; and two were decidedly capable of becoming self-supporting to a considerable extent by basket-work and other means, with the assistance which all Pupils must receive from some source if they are to succeed after they leave the Institution. The Committee recognise the need of a Fund for this purpose beyond the assistance given at starting, in order to keep in touch with their old Pupils until they are in better position to do for themselves.

With regard to technical training, those methods are consistently adhered to which long experience has shown to be most beneficial to the greatest number. Mechanical work of various kinds, with music for those with special aptitude for it, and piano tuning, cover the whole ground which can be traversed in the short and uncertain time there is for training after the age of 16.

Much attention was given during the year to adapting the Asylum to modern requirements for classifying Pupils and the proper separation of the sexes.

The Audited Accounts herewith show a satisfactory year's working, with a balance in the Treasurer's hands of £225 11s. 6d. ; but as this was more than swallowed up by bills unpaid on 31st Dec. the need for increased Donations and Subscriptions is apparent.

CHAPEL.

FORM OF LEGACY.

I bequeath to the Institution called "THE BRISTOL ASYLUM, OR SCHOOL OF INDUSTRY FOR THE BLIND," the sum of to be paid to the Treasurer for the time being of that Institution, for the general purposes thereof; which sum I direct to be paid preferably to any other legacies out of such part of my personal estate as may lawfully be appropriated to charitable purposes.

Gifts, by will, of land, or of any charges on land, or of money or stock to be laid out in the purchase of land, for charitable uses, are void by the Statute of Mortmain, but money or stock may be given by will, if not directed to be laid out in land.

Every person contributing £10 at one time, or annually subscribing £1 1s. (so long as such annual subscription continues), is a Member of the Institution.

Those who may be disposed to support this benevolent Institution are informed that Donations and Subscriptions will be received by the Treasurer; by Stuckey's Banking Company; by any Member of the Committee; and at the Asylum, Queen's Road, Clifton, Bristol.

All Annual Subscriptions are due the 1st January in each year.

All descriptions of Basket Work, Door Mats, Hearth Rugs of various colours and sizes, and Ornamental Knitting, are constantly kept on sale, at moderate prices, at the Asylum.
